

TRANSPORTATION IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

WHAT IS THE TRANSPORTATION IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM?

The Transportation Improvement Program \(TIP\) maps out five years of funding for transportation projects in the Boston region. Each year, the Boston Region Metropolitan Planning Organization \(MPO\) decides how to spend approximately $130–160 million in federal funding (called Regional Target funding) to complement state and local transportation infrastructure investments in the Boston region.

FUNDING TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS—TIP

The Boston Region MPO TIP includes:

- MPO-prioritized projects based on the MPO's goals and investment programs
- Massachusetts Department of Transportation (MassDOT)-prioritized projects
- Transit projects for the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA), MetroWest Regional Transit Authority (MWRTA), and Cape Ann Transportation Authority (CATA)

The MPO decides which projects to fund using a variety of quantitative and qualitative criteria based on the MPO's six goal areas. These criteria assess how projects support equity, improve air quality and the environment, increase safety for different modes, promote economic development, improve mobility, and preserve and modernize existing infrastructure. Scores based on those criteria are balanced with considerations related to the project's investment program category, readiness for construction and cost, and the availability of funding. The MPO recently updated the criteria used to assess projects. To learn more about these changes, visit the TIP Criteria Development webpage.

WHAT TYPES OF PROJECTS DOES THE MPO FUND?

The MPO prioritizes investments that focus on

- preserving, maintaining, and modernizing the transportation system;
- providing safe transportation for all modes;
- enhancing livability, economic vitality, and equity; and
- improving mobility throughout the region.

These investments fund projects like Complete Streets construction, intersection improvements, shared-use path expansion, transit enhancements, and pedestrian infrastructure improvements that align with the MPO's vision, goals, and objectives established in the Long-Range Transportation Plan \(LRTP\), Destination 2040.

What is an MPO?

MPOs, or metropolitan planning organizations, are federally required regional planning entities that engage government representatives, elected officials, transportation agencies, residents, and other stakeholders in a collaborative and transparent public process to

- Develop a vision in the Long-Range Transportation Plan for multimodal transportation in the region

- Distribute federal funds to construction projects that support the vision through the Transportation Improvement Program

- Carry out multimodal transportation planning at a regional scale through the Unified Planning Work Program
